

Gaëtan FRANÇOIS

Product Manager - 15 Years in Enterprise Software

Profile

I was Product Manager at WallOfTraders.com, a B2C trading platform. I owned the roadmap, decided what shipped, specified it, and validated every feature against how users actually behaved. Around that, I spent 15 years in enterprise software, ten of them between L'Oréal's HR business teams and the developers building for them. I wrote the functional specifications, arbitrated scope, and stayed with each release through go-live and support. I trained as an engineer, hold a Master's degree in Applied Mathematics, and use Claude Code daily alongside web technologies.
