

Gaëtan FRANÇOIS

Marketing, Acquisition & SEO Lead - Product Manager, 15 years' experience

Profile

I was Product Manager at WallOfTraders.com, a B2C trading platform, where I also ran marketing and acquisition: SEO (topic clusters, internal linking, link building), Facebook Ads and Google Ads campaigns, social media and community management. Trained as an engineer, I also spent 15 years in enterprise software, ten of them bridging L'Oréal's HR teams and their developers, and I use generative AI daily, including on optimisation for AI answer engines (GEO/AEO).

WallOfTraders.com
Remote

Product Manager - B2B/B2C SaaS Startup

- Ran marketing and acquisition for the platform across two customer segments (B2B trader accounts with a community, and B2C clients who copied their trades): SEO (topic clusters, internal linking, link building), Facebook Ads and Google Ads campaigns, social media and community management (Telegram, newsletters), product demos for new trader accounts, tracking acquisition metrics
- Owned the product of a trading platform end to end: roadmap, specification of every feature, tracking adoption and retention KPIs, and arbitrating priorities with the development team to fit specific account needs
- Designed wireframes and user journeys, keeping the platform's visual and UX consistency as it evolved
- Managed interns and apprentices who handled part of the editorial and technical execution

2018 - 2025

L'ORÉAL
