Profile

Senior HRIS consultant with 15 years spent designing, migrating and running SAP HR solutions for large multi-country organisations, including 10 years on the L'Oréal worldwide account (40+ countries). Used to sitting in front of HR sponsors and local teams: running design workshops, turning HR needs into functional specifications, showing what a system can and cannot do, and defending the option that stays maintainable three years later. Led and won an outsourcing tender for SAP HR application maintenance. Co-founder of WallOfTraders.com, a B2C SaaS platform. Trained in Machine Learning with Python (Coursera) and a daily user of generative AI tools.
